

Harmony Foundation is pleased make this special offer to Participants of World Urban Forum, Vancouver.

Green Cities: A Guide for Sustainable Community Development

"This remarkable guide is rich in practical ideas and inspiring examples of what must be done in every community to set us on the path to sustainability. This guide will brightly illuminate the pathway to that future." HON. MAURICE F. STRONG, CHAIRMAN EMERITUS, EARTH COUNCIL ALLIANCE

This 124 page book includes a thought-provoking foreword by Maurice Strong, a concise and thorough overview of sustainable community development, inspiring community success stories from around the world and practical tools and invaluable resources for establishing community priorities and taking local action. It encourages leadership committed to long-term goals and active public participation.

To purchase a copy or view an extract of our publications and to learn about our education programs please visit www.harmonyfdn.ca

Or visit our Booth (#7) at World Urban Forum and take advantage of this special offer for Forum participants of $25 including taxes (regular price $35 plus taxes and postage).

Green Cities: a Guide for Sustainable Community Development was produced in collaboration with our partners at The Earth Council Alliance (www.earthcouncilalliance.org) and The Centre for Sustainable Community Development. It is the latest in a series of Harmony Foundation publications to help communities take practical action on important issues such as water, climate change and bio-diversity. Since 1985, Harmony Foundation's innovative training programs and education materials have helped schools, workplaces and communities around the world to acquire the knowledge and skills to take practical, local action on vital issues such as climate change, water, bio-diversity and green cities while contributing to national progress and international cooperation.

More Praise for Green Cities

“The Green Cities guide is an important and timely contribution to the efforts of Cities around the world to transform urban growth into economic prosperity, social justice and ecological stability.”

CHARLES KELLY, COMMISSIONER GENERAL, WORLD URBAN FORUM 3

“This fabulous book, with its practical content and inspiring examples, is a must for anyone pursuing sustainable community development.”

MAYOR GAVIN NEWSOM, SAN FRANCISCO, HOST CITY OF WORLD ENVIRONMENT 2005

“The Intellectual content of Green Cities along with your unique format makes the book easy to read and locate practical information.”

JACK GIAMPALMI, BUSINESS ENVIRONMENTALIST, RESEARCHER AND SPEAKER ON BUSINESS ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERSHIP

“I urge cities large and small to get a copy of Green Cities and get on the path towards sustainability. Green Cities is a very useful publication.”

DAVID CADMAN, DEPUTY MAYOR, CITY OF VANCOUVER, AND INTERNATIONAL VICE-PRESIDENT ICLEI: LOCAL GOVERNMENTS FOR SUSTAINABILITY

All of Harmony Foundation's program and publications are outstanding, but the most important one is this new guide they've created: “Green Cities: A Guide for Sustainable Community Development”. We consider this to be a “must have” tool for community leaders.
